

EVENTS & Stays

We're glad you're planning to spend a special moment with us. There are basically two ways to use the Lodge. For us the difference isn't the occasion, but what exactly you need. Here we've put the main differences side by side, so you can see quickly what fits your plans best.

STAY

During a stay you can use all the infrastructure in the main house. The lobby, the tavern, the professional kitchen, and bedrooms for up to twenty people. For larger groups the apartments can be added, if they are available and you reserve them.

The grounds are open to you as well, but they are not part of the booking. We keep working here as usual, and it can happen that not all areas are available all the time or that the apartments are rented to other guests.

The price for a stay is per person and night, and our house rules apply regardless of the occasion and the size of the group.

EVENT

For an event, the entire estate is at your disposal exclusively. Not only the buildings, but the grounds as well. We prepare them for you, and you can plan with them. Our own work stands still for that time. Nobody mows a lawn, nobody repairs a fence, and apart from you there are no other guests here.

This allows for extended rules. Music outside, structures and decoration, your own suppliers on the grounds, longer hours in the spa. What isn't possible during a stay is possible here. To the extent we agree on beforehand.

An event covers at least three nights and is charged as a flat rate for the estate, regardless of how many of you come.

WHAT FITS YOUR PLANS

For most groups a stay is exactly right, including birthdays, anniversaries, or family celebrations, as long as you stay among yourselves and use the house as it is. It becomes an event when your stay needs planning that goes beyond simply living here. When external suppliers come onto the grounds and have to be coordinated, or when you have something planned outdoors and need to rely on an area being available at a certain time exactly as you planned it. Then it isn't enough that the grounds are usable. Then they have to be prepared. For that we need lead time, arrangements, and the freedom to extend the rules for you. If you're unsure, just write to us and tell us how you picture the whole thing. We'll tell you honestly what works best in our experience.
